As regards dry assessment, under the existing rules, there is no provision for remission. But when the Deputy Commissioner has ascertained by local enquiries that owing to a partial or total failure or destruction of crops throughout any tract on account of drought or any other cause, it will be necessary to suspend the collection of land revenue in any area, he is authorised, specially when the tract is already impoverished or the previous harvests have been poor, to grant suspension of 1/4 assessment and report the fact to the Government, this suspended revenue being normally collected in the following year along with the assessment of that year. If during the year following the year of suspension of revenue also the crops fail, the suspended assessment will be remitted by the Deputy Commissioner after obtaining sanction of Government. For purposes of these rules, 'tract' has been defined as meaning all dry lands situated in a 'hobli' and 'partial failure of crops' is deemed to exist, if due to seasonal conditions 50 per cent or more of lands in a holding in a tract are uncultivated or if cultivated have yielded a crop of four annas or less.

His Highness the Maharaja has been graciously pleased to tour in the affected areas and obtain first-hand information of the situation. In view of the extraordinary conditions now prevailing, His Highness the Maharaja is satisfied that the concessions available under the normal rules require to be liberalised and is therefore graciously pleased to direct that the following concessions be sanctioned as a special case this year for the affected areas, which will be separately notified.

(1) As regards wet lands, the rule restricting the grant of relief to cases where previous harvests had been so poor as to render a special measure of relief necessary will be abrogated and remissions may be granted without reference to the condition of the previous harvests and one-half of the wet and garden assessment will be remitted, provided the other conditions are satisfied.

(2) The collection of the balance of the wet and garden assessment on the lands affected will be suspended.

As regards dry assessment,—

(i) One-half of the assessment will be remitted and the collection of the other half will be suspended.

(ii) The term 'tract' will, for the purposes of these concessions, be treated as meaning all dry lands included within the limits of a single revenue village instead of a hobli.

The benefit of remissions and suspensions of revenue sanctioned above will be confined only to deserving cases in which lands have either remained uncultivated or if cultivated, have yielded a crop of not more than 4 annas.

His Highness the Maharaja is confident that these special concessions will afford a substantial measure of relief to the raiyats in the affected areas.

Secretary to Government,
